Cape Ann Shrine Club

IT was a beautiful, balmy summer evening when the Cape Ann Shrine Club hosted its Annual Potentate's Boat Cruise on July 28, 2007. They cruised the Gloucester inner and outer harbor and the Anisquam River.

The capacity crowd enjoyed a buffet that included Cape Ann clam chowder, shrimp cocktail, a variety of roll-up sandwiches, dessert and coffee. The buffet was organized and served by Noble and Club Past President Walter Snider and Lady Karen. They were ably assisted by Heather Snider, Shawn Depriest and Mike O'Rourke. They really outdid themselves!

As the cruise made its way around Gloucester and the river, the guests were entertained by Dana King's Bluegrass Band.

Noble Tom Pawlyk, President of the Cape Ann Shrine Club, introduced Illustrious Albert D. Flight, Potentate of Aleppo, and presented him with a statue of the "Gloucester fisherman at the wheel," the club's logo. Lady Jean was presented a beautiful basket of colorful plants. Illustrious Flight thanked the Shrine Club its hospitality and for a most enjoyable event. He then introduced the Divan members and their Ladies who were present, as well as the other notable guests accompanying the suite.

Make sure you mark your calendars and don't forget next year's Potentate's Cruise. Scheduled for July 12, 2008!
