

DURING THE November 14, 2009, Ceremonial, the Motor Patrol presented Illustrious Potentate, Robert F. Smith with the trophies they won at the 2009 Imperial Session in San Antonio, Texas, and the 2009 Northeast Field Days in Burlington, Vermont.

By BILL BALL

THE Motor patrol is finishing up an exciting year of parades and competition. We have put the cars away for the season, as there are no more parades until next year. The cars are working well and the members are ready for a rest. We were able to present our first place trophies to Ill. Potentate Robert F. Smith at the November Ceremonial with pride. The weather, that day was so rainy, that our cars stayed inside and we marched around for the parade in review. It was the first time in over ten years. As we come to the holidays, we would like to wish our members who are in another state, a healthy and happy holiday. We have our special members; Earl Elliott, who lives in Abington MA and is doing fine, R. Barry Johnson, who is at the Kathleen Daniel Nursing Home in Framingham MA, A. Gordon Kimball, who lives in Kissimmee, Florida, and to all the other Motor Patrol Nobles who are out of state and we do not see. We would like to wish them a happy healthy holiday. As we get started in 2010, we will be getting ready for the competition in Toronto for the International as well as Halifax for the Northeast. Happy Motoring

It's a sellout every year!!

Swing Band Notes

IT'S hard to believe another year has passed by. The Swing Band has had a very active musical year. We've enjoyed playing for Masonic Lodges, Shrine Clubs, parties & events. We thank all those individuals who have helped Swing Band. It is the Nobility who recommends us to the many events.

For those of you who don't know, ALL the talented musicians perform for FREE. The monies donated to the Swing Band are directed to the Shriners Hospital for Children-Boston and the Aleppo Shriners Children's Transportation Fund.

The Swing Band rehearses diligently every Tuesday evening, at the Aleppo Temple from 7:00 to 9:00. Come on by to listen as our music repertoire continues to expand.

This Unit is unique in that it takes all seventeen musicians to make it happen every week, it is truly a team effort. The dedication and friendships is special. All musicians make positive input so the music you hear is great.

On December 8th. The Swing Band held its annual Holiday party. It is a time for the members to entertain our family and friends.

Please keep us in mind when planning your event. It's your continued support that keeps our group thriving.
