THE SHRINE CLUB OF SOUTHEASTERN MASSACHUSETTS hosted a Christmas party for the Schwartz Center for handicapped children at their facility in Dartmouth, Massachusetts. The members of the club put together one hundred stockings filled with candy, fruit, crayons, cookies and a stuffed animal.

Six Shriners spent the better part of the day passing out these stockings with the help of two clowns who are also members of the Shrine Club, Nobles Matt and Rick Brodeur (known as "Dusty" and "Tubby," respectively). The Schwartz Center was most appreciative of our efforts and rewarded all who took part with a commemorative Christmas ornament.

NOBLE Ralph Kaplan presented Noble Leon Golden with a check for $2,000 for the Aleppo Shriners Children's Transportation Fund at a Moses Michael Hayes Lodge breakfast on December 7, 2008. These monies came from a wine tasting that took place at Kappy's Liquors which Ralph owns. He was also graceful enough to let Leon and his group do their infamous "canning" outside the store during the tasting. From left to right are: Irwin Daub, Ralph Kaplan and Leon Golden.
