

Hospital Volunteers Lauded

ON May 9, the tables were turned on the Shriners Hospitals for Children's dedicated band of volunteers as they were treated to a delectable dinner and a few pats on the back at the annual volunteer appreciation dinner.

The dinner, sponsored by the Boston Commandery, recognized the hospital's 59 volunteers for their 11,604 hours of service in 2006. On behalf of the hospital staff, many of whom were on hand to show their appreciation, David Simon, Child Life Specialist III, presented the volunteers with boxes of chocolates and playing cards, and Aleppo Potentate Albert Flight,

David McKechnie, Vice Chairman of the Board of Governors, Tom D'Esmond, Administrator, and Bob Tibbetts, Director of Volunteers, lauded the group for their dedication and service.

"Our volunteers are part of what truly makes our hospital different," D'Esmond said. "You connect with our patients from the heart and that is unique. You know our patients and their families by name. You get to know them and become like part of the family. Everything you do, you do selflessly. There is a true sense of comfort when you are there and we thank you for all you do."
