Not only was it a hot humid day but the Stewards were outside cooking up all those delicious steaks for the June 2 Ceremonial lunch. Not missing a beat they had everything impeccably prepared as usual.

Swing Band Notes

ON April 28, the Swing Band played at the Tartan Ball for the Aleppo Pipe Unit. It was a fun-filled evening for one and all whether you were just a toe tapper or a dancer.

We are gearing up for the Neponset Valley Shrine Club Hawaiian Night, which is always a success!! Great food, music and laughs with lots of friends.

July 17th the Swing Band will be playing at the Woburn Holiday Inn, in the Grand Ballroom, exit 35 off Rte. 128, follow Rte. 38 south towards Woburn and take the right into the entrance for the Holiday Inn and Cinema Complex. There will be a cash bar and refreshments, admission is FREE with your Masonic or Shrine dues card!!

The Swing Band and their Ladies enjoyed a wonderful evening with Potentate Albert D. Flight and Lady Jean when they hosted a reception in the Potentates' Suite.

Don't forget September 8th, 2007!

The Swing Band will also be performing two concerts at the Masonic Home and Overlook Communities on September 29th, 2007.

The band is available for hire for all your fraternal parties, just call Dick Fink at 617-955-4100 or email him at don.rich4@rcn.com.

The Swing Band into Fall swing dance is taking place at the Aleppo Shrine Center. The tickets are FREE and the doors open at 7:00pm. Bring your friends, this event is open to the public. There will be refreshments and concessions available. There will also be dance demonstrations by Studio 665

Seating is limited so order your tickets today!
