

TALL SHIP Kalmar Nyckel, off Provincetown during the Centennial Celebration of the Pilgrim Monument.

Thank You Volunteers

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the volunteers who came in at the last minute to help with a mailing on August 9, 2007. These dedicated people come into the Shrine Center at a moments notice to help with some of the administrative duties of Aleppo, and it is greatly appreciated. I enjoy working with each and every one of you, including the persons who helped out at other times not listed here. If not for your help, this and other tasks would take an immense amount of time, and other resources not available to us.

Thank you all.

To the Nobles and Ladies of Aleppo Temple

YOUR support and dedication to the Children's Transportation Fund has been overwhelming and undaunting. Your time at the markets collecting contributions, the drivers who take the time to transport the children and their families to their appointments, and those who bring in the incredible quantities of pull-tabs for the fund.

The Plaque program here at Aleppo is taking off with everyone being up-to-date and the new ones being ordered. Eventually we would like to see one of our Plaques in each of the Blue Lodges, so if you don't see one, let your officers know.

Thank you to each and every one of you who has done so much for the children. Without your dedication and help, it could not be done.

The Shriners All-Star Classic brought in a great deal of money this year, Bob Smith, Aleppo Assistant Rabban, and the team of volunteers did an amazing job, as well as all of the players who sold ads for the ad book. Thank you for all your hard work and we look forward to seeing you win next year also.

Some of the Shrine Clubs had Golf Tournaments this year and raised lots of money. The Worcester, Cape Cod and Cape Ann Shrine Clubs; always pull through.

Thank you to the Southeastern Massachusetts Shrine Club for their hard work with UMass Dartmouth College and the track meet. You always outdo yourselves.

To all of the Clubs and Units of Aleppo Shrine, to the individuals who donate their time and a part of their life, I thank you on behalf of all the children whom you have helped over the years and for years to come. Keep up the amazing work!

My gratitude,

Robert L. Pann
