

ALEPPO SWING BAND at the Swing Into Fall Dance September 8, 2007.

Swing Band Notes

THE Swing Into Fall Dance on September 8, 2007, was a rousing success! The crowd was enthusiastic all evening, out there on the dance floor strutting their stuff. The attendance exceeded 800 dancers strong.

The Swing Band had a wonderful time playing all night. We didn't want to stop! We love looking up from our music and seeing all those smiling faces dancing around, and, during the slower tunes, the couples cheek to cheek in their own world, just focusing on each other, enjoying a sublime moment together.

The entertainment continued all evening. When the band took a break Aleppo's own Peter Simmons was the Disc Jockey for the evening.

Dance demonstrations by Studio 665, located in Woburn, MA, were an added attraction that the crowd enjoyed very much. They stood and watched them take the floor. It was truly "dancing with the stars!"

More important is the thanks to all those unsung heroes, the volunteers, who do all the work behind the scenes. They do mailings, set up the auditorium with tables, chairs, and decorations, and man the bars and concessions. When it's all done, they also help clean it up! Without their energies, events like this wouldn't happen. Their help is truly a blessing.

The Swing Band is gearing up to perform in Charlton, MA, on Saturday September 29. We will be performing two shows. The first morning performance will be for the residents of the Masonic Home. The afternoon performance will be for the residents of Overlook.

The Swing Band will be performing Tuesday, October 16, November 20, and December 18, at the Holiday Inn Select in Woburn, MA, exit 35 off Rt. 128 from 7 pm to 9 pm in the Grand Ball Room. Admission is FREE. Invite your friends.

The band has events all over New England that they play in all year long. Keep an eye on the Aleppo News for more info on these events, or call Dick Fink.

All monies that the band receives for their performances is donated to the Children's Transportation Fund
